The horse or horses nominated above will only be allowed to start in a series race if in good standing at the time of the actual running of the race. PHBA reserves the right to cancel this series (or any race scheduled as a part of it) without notice at any time and without liability, except for the return of the stallion nomination and race nomination fees. Further, every effort will be made by track management to run all series races, but if track management concludes that it does not have enough starters for any series race, track management may also cancel such race. The Pennsylvania Stallion Series will be run under the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Racing Commission and subject to its Rules of Racing.

Nominator attests to the accuracy of the information supplied above and agrees to all the terms and rules of this Stallion Series of races, including the foregoing.
